——Nearly all the Sunday Schools will have christmas trees.

——"The days is dark and dreamy; it rains and the wind is never weary" How applicable to yesterday!

——Yesterday was the best day since the opening of the season to tangle the fluid that cheers and inebriates.

——Regular communication of Raleigh Chapter No. 10, R. A. M., this evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Fisher building.

——Sheriff Brinkley, of Dare, settled with the State Treasurer yesterday to the amount of $750.95. There are yet 10 to come.

——Sunday's weather was beautiful and delightful until toward evening, and large crowds of people attended the several churches.

——Parties who have failed to pay their county taxes will be interested in Sheriff S. M. Dunn's notice in this mornings NEWS.

——The Mayor's dockets Sunday and yesterday showed no more grievous offences than drunk and down, drunk and disorderly, and plain drunk. $5 and an injunction in each case.

——If wine is a mocker and strong drink is raging, and if those who tarry long at their wine have redness of eyes, how many headaches will there be in town one week from this morning?

——George Washington was hidden from view, yesterday, by the continued building of the inauguration platform. George needs to be hidden altogether or else be washed up a little. He's as dusty and dirty looking as a ramp.

——Yesterday was an intensely disagreeable day. From 11 o'clock the rain fell incessantly until near sunset, when it ceased and the clouds cleared away. By midnight the mud in the streets was frozen hard, and the rain puddles had become little ponds of ice.

——A fact in connection with the recent election to which our attention has just been called, and one which is sufficient to excite comment, is that in this county, Col. T. L. Hargrove, Republican candidate for Attorney-General, ran 502 votes ahead of settle.

——Messrs. Edwards, Broughton & Co., gave an oyster supper sociable complimentary to their employes, at the Central Hotel last evening. We acknowledge with thanks a courteous invitation to participate, and regret that business of a pressing character debarred us that pleasure.

Death of a Well-Known Colored Man.

Charles Hunter, a well-known colored citizen of Raleigh, died at his residence yesterday morning. He had been a hotel waiter nearly all of his life, and as such became known to a great many people, not only in this city, but all over the State. For years he was a waiter in the old Lawrence Hotel, and subsequently the Yarborough House, where he was caterer part of the time to Col. Yarborough and Dr. Blacknall. Old age, however, impaired his usefulness in this capacity, and a few years ago he went into the huckster business, which he followed until the time of his death. He was a man of strict honesty, of most excellent character in all respects, and died possessing the respect of all who knew him.

The Sleeping Beauty.

This drama, by our juvenile friends, which we mentioned in our last issue will, we learn, be enacted at Metropolitan Hall on Wednesday evening. It is to be given in connection with the entertainment by the ladies' sewing society, of Edenton Street M. E. Church, and the admittance fee will be but a mere trifle. Let all go who can, and give the young people a full house.

Sunday School Missionary Society.

A meeting was held Sunday afternoon at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, and a Sunday School Missionary Society was organized with the following officers:

President—Henry Briggs; Vice-Presidents—W. H. Dodd and W. H. Pace; Secretary—Sam'l Brewer; Asst. Secretary—K. W. Weathers. It is desired to have this society number 1,000 members in this city; the Second Baptist Sunday School promises 250 members, and the other 750 are expected to be made up in the Salisbury Street Church. It is not to be confined to Raleigh, but its influence is expected to radiate from this city and societies of a similar character to spring up all over the State.

At the meeting Sunday afternoon 80 teachers and children from the Sunday School were chosen and to each of these a commission was issued, and he or she was authorized and instructed to gather members into the society, charging 5 cents as an initiation fee and 5 cents as dues each month. It is hoped in this way to raise a considerable fund in the course of a year for the cause of missions, and really the idea does appear an excellent one. We wish the little people great success in it.

Suicide by Jumping from a Boat.

Passengers arriving in this city by the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad report that last Friday night a man jumped off the Norfolk boat between Holly Grove and North Point, and was drowned. Two or three persons saw the jump and gave the alarm without delay, whereupon the captain of the boat—the George Leary—had a boat lowered, but nothing whatever could be seen of the missing man. It was subsequently learned that the man was named Marrist or Marriot, and that he was a citizen of Baltimore. It is believed that he was laboring under mental aberration at the time he jumped overboard.

Gov. Vance's last Speech to the Jury.

The Charlotte Observer says that Gov. Vance was over at Concord last week attending court. The last speech he made to the jury closed with a peroration something like this: "Gentlemen of the jury, this is the last time I shall have the pleasure of addressing a jury for some time to come. Indeed, to the dispensation of Providence—and it affords me particular pleasure, gentlemen, that I should be permitted to make my last speech to a set of men representing as much of the intelligence of the good old county of Cabarrus as the jury before me." Need it be told how that jury decided?

Personal.

Maj. J. C. McRae, of Fayetteville, is at the Yarborough House.

T. C. Woodburn, Esq., editor of the Durham Herald, is at the National Hotel.

Rev. J. M. Rose, a native of Fayetteville, and new pastor of the Presbyterian church of Portsmouth, Va., is registered at the Yarborough House.

Mr. Josiah Turner is at the National.

Maj. Louis C. Latham, of Plymouth, arrived in the city last evening.

An Appreciated Evidence of Remembrance.

Messrs. Weathers & Rogers, who keep stall No. 28, in the Market House, sent around to our office last evening, a highly appreciated specimen of those things in which they deal, consisting of rabbit, squirrel, apples, chestnuts, oysters, &c. They keep on hand, in addition to the articles named, eggs, cabbage, turkeys, butter, chickens, and produce generally.

Election of Officers.

At a regular meeting of Hiram Lodge, No. 40, A. F. & A. M., held last night at its hall in the Fisher building, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

W. M.—F. H. Busbee.
S. W.—J. C. R. Little.
J. W.—Tuos Blake.
Treasurer—Leo. Heartt.

Parts his Name in the Middle.

His Excellency, Gov. Brogden, on yesterday notified Gov. Kemper, of Virginia, that J. Barwell Lawson, a criminal who had escaped from the jail of Halifax county, Va., is in jail at Roxboro, Person county, and awaits the requisition of the Governor of Virginia.

More Pen. Cons.

Sheriff Barefoot, assisted by Mr. B. F. Boykin, brought to this city last night, Lewis Burden, Isaac Corbin and James A. Wilson, all colored, convicted of larceny at the last term of Sampson court, and all sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. The party arrived last night on the freight train.

Digests of Decisions of the Supreme Court, Summer Term, 1876.

There is no device or cover by which Building and Loan Associations can take from those who borrow their money more than the legal rate of interest, without incurring penalties of our usury laws. Calling the borrower "a partner," or substituting "redeeming" for "lending," or "premium" for "bonds," for an amount they profess to have advanced, and yet withold; or "dues" for "interest," or any like subterfuges will not avail. The Court look at the substance.—Mills & Wife, v the Salisbury B. & L. Association.

In passing upon the credibility of a witness, even where no corruption is impuced, the jury must consider the intelligence of the witness, his means of knowledge, his interest, &c.: Therefore, it is error in the court, upon the trial of the cause, where there is conflicting evidence, to charge the jury; that "both the witnesses are gentlemen, and it purely a matter of memory." McRae v Lawrence.

Where but one issue is submitted to the jury, and the affirmative is upon the defendant, or where the affirmative of all the issues is upon the defendant, he has the right to open and conclude the argument.

In an action by a cestui que trust for the recovery of land, devised to a trustee for her sole use and benefit during her natural life, and then over to the heirs of her body, and which land had been sold under a petition in equity, by said trustee, without the knowledge or consent of said cestui que trust: IT WAS HELD, that the trustee was a necessary party and the case was remanded in order to make him one. Cowdry v Cheshire.

The registrar of voters, provided for in the Private Act, ratified 21st December, 1870, relating to the registration of voters in the municipal elections of the town of Fayetteville, is a Judge to determine, decide and adjudge who is entitled to register up to the day of election; and in the exercise of his judgment, or discretion, in a matter pertaining to his office, he is not liable criminally for any error which he commits, provided he acts honestly. Powers' case.

Any officer, judicial or ministerial, who acts corruptly, is responsible, both civilly and criminally, whether he acts under the law or without the law. Ibid.

Transfer of Conductors.

We are sorry to learn that Capt Thad. Troy, who has been running as conductor between Greensboro and Goldsboro since the change of the gauge will be transferred, in the early part of next month, from this division of the road to the through run between Richmond and Charlotte. He will be succeeded by Capt. Spragins, the old and well known conductor on the North Carolina Railroad for years past, who, with Capt. E. H. Smith, will run on this end of the road. Capt. Spragins has been for more than a year past running the accommodation train between Richmond and Burkeville. He is succeeded by Capt. Flournoy, who has been on the through run, and who will be succeeded by Capt. Troy. This gentleman is a polite and accommodating conductor, who has many friends all along the road from Greensboro to Goldsboro who will regret that he is to be transferred.

Preparing a New Restaurant.

Capt. T. F. Lee has nearly completed the remodling of the building at the corner of Martin and Salisbury streets, which he has been repairing with a view of removing to it his bar and restaurant, now at the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets. It is an excellent location, and the place will be elegantly arranged and fitted up. The front rooms down stairs will be used for the purposes of the restaurant. In the rear of these is a large hall in which will be placed six billiard tables, while at one end the bar will be cut off by a screen. The second story of the building is divided into many small apartments which will be used for private parlors by parties of gentlemen. The place will no doubt soon become a popular resort.

Warrant of Arrest.

Lest the designs of the law might be frustrated we did not mention in Sunday's paper that on the day previous a detective from Baltimore had applied to Gov. Brogden for, and received a warrant of arrest and delivery for a merchant named Hilliard, who lives at Whitakers, Edgecombe county, and who is charged with obtaining goods in Baltimore under false pretences. The necessary papers having been issued, the detective left, Saturday afternoon, for Whitakers and before this time the man has no doubt been placed under arrest. The reporter could not learn the name of the firm from which the goods were obtained, nor the extent of the alleged fraud.

James P. Hayes has a large order for furs and will pay the highest cash price in the State this season. Send for price list. Box 95.

Death of a Convict.

Gov. Brogden has just received an application for the pardon of Armistead Brown, colored, who was convicted in Mecklenburg Court of the crime of larceny and sentenced to 10 year's imprisonment in the penitentiary. The convict's former owner, Col. John E Brown, of Charlotte, wrote a strong letter urging his pardon, and His Excellency sent out to the penitentiary yesterday to learn what had been Brown's behavior since his incarceration there. He learned in reply that the convict had passed beyond the reach of his pardoning power, having died on the 7th of November at the work on the Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad whither he had been sent.

Thirteen in the late Election.

On the 10th of this month the News told how the name North Carolina is composed of 13 letters; Zebulon B. Vance, of 13; Samuel J. Tilden, of 13, and how Vance's majority was 13,009. The Sentinel added that we fell short in the significance of the coincident by omitting to add that the colonies which won the liberties it will be the work of Vance and Tilden to perpetuate, are remembered as the original thirteen." And now the Charlotte Observer comes along and says both of us seem to have overlooked the fact that the name of Thomas J. Jarvis is composed of 13 letters.

ANONYMOUS communications are promptly consigned to the waste basket.

THE New York Sun calls for the impeachment of Judge Bond, whose offence is "rank and unqualified."

THE Wilmington Cape Fear says that the Democratic Executive Committee of Wilmington and other leading citizens are at work on a bill in regard to county governments to be presented to the General Assembly at an early day.

A great many good people are no doubt troubled with visions of war. We advise all such to remember that "sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." There is little or no likelihood of war. The most pacific tone prevails among Congressmen. The idea of fighting is scouted.

THE New York Herald says:—"View it on whatever side you will, a resort to force would be stupendous folly." Truer words were never spoken; but they are as applicable to Mr. Hayes as to Mr. Tilden. Force must not be used to place the Ohio Governor in the Presidential chair.

OUR correspondent "Cumberland" makes some very valuable suggestions on the subject of county governments. The writer is one of the ablest and most patriotic gentlemen in North Carolina; and his views deserve close attention. We will again refer to them more at length.

AN important interview with President Grant is published in our telegraphic columns this morning. He declares his purpose to see that the man is seated as President of the United States, who is declared elected by the President of the Senate. The conspiracy of the Republicans is to have the President of the Senate declare Hayes elected. So Mr. Grant may as well have said at once that he intended to seat Hayes: that is his purpose, unquestionably.

THE Washington correspondent of the New York Herald states that the Indiana movement is regarded by the democrats, with very few exceptions, as a great piece of folly which ought to be frowned down by everybody. The Indiana democrats would not move without the consent of Gov. Hendricks. Gov. Hendricks would not stir a finger unless the National Democratic Committee approved; and this committee would hardly take definite action in a matter of this kind, unless Gov. Tilden had signified his consent thereto. We may therefore set it down as certain that the Indiana movement is not regarded by thedemocrats as "a great folly."

A STEEL engraving of Bishop Atkinson is now on exhibition in this city. The picture is executed in the very best style of art, by a distinguished artist of New York City, and is a most faithful likeness of the beloved divine whom it represents. The publishers have done the many friends of Bishop Atkinson a signal favor in bringing out so superb an engraving of one who is loved and honored both at home and abroad.—As the object of the publishers is purely a benevolent one, it is hoped that they will receive a liberal patronage. The price is $2.50 for plain, and $5.00 per copy for india proof impressions. Orders may be sent to Alfred Williams, Citizens' National Bank, or Rev. Dr. Marshall, of this city. The engravings are sold for charitable purposes.

THE LATE ELECTION IN THIS STATE.

It is charged that there was fraud in the late election in this State. The charge is made in general terms. No specific allegations have yet been advanced. Not one of the slanderers of the State will lay his finger upon a county where fraud was practiced, or upon a man or men who accomplished such wrong or who profited by it. They dare not go into particulars, but content themselves with the general and most indefinite sort of insinuations.

These insinuations against the good name of our people were first publicly made in a series of telegraphic dispatches from the Greensboro correspondent of the New York Times, a few days subsequent to the election. The slanderous statements have found no one to bolster them up publicly, so far as we know, save and except the drunken, malicious occupant of the White House and his minions who constitute the Greensboro clique in this State.

The New North State, the organ of the carpet-baggers who still infest our borders, says:

"It is singular that the Democratic newspapers are so silent concerning the enormous increase of the vote in the late election in North Carolina. Can it be they are afraid to grapple with the figures, and do they hesitate to stir the matter up?"

There has been no hesitation on the part of the Democratic newspapers to denounce this attempt at defamation as it deserves: neither are they afraid "to grapple with the figures." The citation of a few figures will be sufficient to show the utter groundlessness of charges of fraud based on "the enormous increase of the vote."

In 1872 the Democrats polled for Governor 96,731 votes. In 1874, the Democratic Congressional vote aggregated 109,318—showing decided growth in the Democratic strength of the State. Now if the vote for Gov. Vance in 1876 shows an increase over the vote for Congressmen in 1874, exactly proportionate to the increase of the vote of 1872, there can be no ground left for complaint; it would reveal the causes of the increase of the Democratic vote, to-wit: Natural growth of the Democratic voting population, to say nothing of converts from the Republican ranks.

By the good old rule of three it will be ascertained that if the Democrats polled in 1872, 79,731 votes, and 109,318 in 1874, the same ratio of increase would give them in 1876, 123,542 votes.

Governor Vance did actually receive 123,203 votes—all told—coming within 339 votes of the figure assigned him by a law of natural increase of the voting population, based upon the soundest reason and the most accurate arithmetical calculation.

When it can be shown so clearly that in the late election we had on our side the Law, the Constitution, and the Rule of Three, every "doubting Thomas" in the land ought to be satisfied—including Tom Settle, Tom Keogh, and their understrappers.

The Republicans know that no frauds were committed in this State. The honest ones among them do not hesitate to make the admission. It is then a shame that any of them should attempt to defame our people by making baseless charges of fraud, and deliberately circulating them over the country. Were there evidences of ballot-box stuffing or other corrupt practices in the election of the 7th of November, the Democrats themselves would rigidly investigate the matter.

THE UNIVERSITY.

We present elsewhere this morning a deeply interesting letter on the University of the State, written by one who speaks ex cathedra. He gives us a bright picture of the present condition and future prospects of this noble institution. Indeed, he tells us that all doubts about its success are now dispelled, its foundations being firmly laid and its progress up to date indicating far better things in the years to come when prosperity shall have returned to bless the State.

Among the evidences of progress our correspondent cites the additions to the faculty; the improved appliances of instruction; the establishment of a "hall of Agriculture"; the organization of a Young Men's Christian Association; and the elevation of the standard of scholarship. These signs of new life are cheering to the friends of the college; and under the present able management, still other steps may be looked for in the line of improvement.

The setting apart of a "Hall of Agriculture," for the reception of agricultural implements and products, to be used for illustrating the study of Agriculture, is a movement in the right direction. It will meet with universal favor. To render it as useful as it is designed to be, it would be well, as suggested by our correspondent, for each county in the State to place in this hall some representation of its staple products and wealth, "so that the means may always be at hand for displaying the resources of the State, and possibly of attracting capital and immigrants."

This branch of the University will be perfected as rapidly as it is possible for the President and the Trustees and the Faculty to accomplish it. They aim to establish at Chapel Hill an "Agricultural Experiment Station," similar in its main features to those in Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Jersey—the object being to protect purchasers of fertilizers from fraud; to instruct the farmers what kind of fertilizers to buy; to try experiments on plants and animals, and communicate the results to the public. The combination of the Geological Department of the State with this Agricultural Department would be prolific of good results. In the words of its able and zealous President, the University should become "the centre of light to the people." If his hands are upheld it will become so.

DISPLACEMENT OF COUNTY OFFICERS.

We call the attention of those who are considering the question of County Government, to an ordinance of the late Constitutional Convention that seems to have escaped general notice. It was added to article four of the Constitution and is as follows:

"The amendments made to the Constitution of North Carolina by this Convention shall not have the effect to vacate any office or term of office now existing under the Constitution of the State, and filled, or held, by virtue of any election or appointment under the said Constitution, and the laws of the State made in pursuance thereof."

The amendments will take effect on the first day of January, 1877. All the county officers, including Magistrates and County Commissioners, heretofore elected, will be in office at that time. The Magistrates, we believe, for about one year, and the others, for nearly two years. So, it will be seen, no general plan of County Government, involving the displacement of these officers, can go into immediate effect. Whether it will be good policy for the Democratic party to inaugurate any scheme of general application that cannot be fully and satisfactorily tested before the next State election, is a very serious question which we leave others to decide. But be that as it may, there can be no doubt that the negro-ridden counties of the East need and ought to have some sort of relief, and that speedily. If they cannot be fully relieved let them be partially relieved. A half a loaf with them will be better than no bread.

THE Rule of Three applied to previous elections in this State shows that Gov. Vance ought to have received 123,542 votes. Gov. Vance did receive 123,203 votes. Yet some Republicans profess not to understand the reason of the increase in our vote. They should study the rule of three instead of the rule of "addition, division and silence."

PERSONAL.

Gov. Hayes looks careworn and wears pea-green kids.

The Colorado House of Representatives has a woman for enrolling clerk.

The next census of the United States, in 1880, is estimated at fortysix millions.

The new Governor of New York will retain nearly all of Mr. Tilden's old staff.

It is said that Blue Jeans Williams is a daily visitor on the floor of Congress. He still wears the same old suit.

Mlle Annette Essipoff, the great Russian pianist, who is now creating such a sensation in New York, is a beautiful young woman, full of pluck, and possessing a fine muscular development.

Mr. George Bancroft is bestirring himself in Washington in starting a testimonial fund for Wade Hampton. The burning of the General's house and his behavior in South Carolina are the impelling reasons.

Prince Bismarck has established it as a principle that no official of the Foreign office can marry a foreigner. The Prince reasons thus—a husband is sure to tell his wife and the wife to tell some one of her country-women.

Rear Admiral Reynolds, of the United States squadron on the China station, has visited the great wall of China, and reports that celebrated structure in a good state of preservation, although it has not been repaired for an indefinitely remote period.

Mr. Casanave, of the Louisiana returning board, keeps a gin shop, and John Sherman's report describes him as one 'who has long conducted a prosperous and respectable business in the city of New Orleans" Never so prosperous as when the gentleman from Ohio and his pals went down there!

Several years ago the wife of Alonzo Hayward, of San Francisco, obtained a divorce from her husband and received from him a full half of his property, then amounting to many millions of dollars. Since the separation his circumstances have undergone a great change for the worse, and his divorced wife has repeatedly offered him a large part of her portion. As he persistently refuses to accept a cent of it, she has altered her tack and courted him so warmly that their remarriage is reported as soon to take place.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Senator Cameron thinks it will all come right—if public opinion sustains the plans of the Republican leaders.

A Republican dispatch from Washington says Gen. Grant's recent conversations "give great satisfaction to Republican leaders" and "all fears of a conservative policy are now dispelled."

It seems to have been settled that the returning boards can perpetuate themselves, are not amenable to the State courts and can act whether constituted according to law or not, and yet this is supposed to be a Republican government.

Owing to a blunder on the part of the Secretary of State of South Carolina, the Laurens and Edgefield representatives were duly certified as elected to the legislature, and this fact seems likely to give the Radicals considerable trouble.

Mr. Redfield, who is a Republican of the old school, writes to the Cincinnati Commercial that the only hope for permanent peace in Louisiana lies in the return of the Democrats to power.

An exchange thinks telegraphic wires have no conscience, as they can spread false news very rapidly, especially when when they are under the control of Radical wire-pullers.

COMMENT OF THE PRESS.

The President having stated that North Carolina would have given Hayes a majority but for fraud, the papers of that State are calling on him to prove it. Gently, friends, gently! Don't make the Chief Magistrate place himself in any more awkward positions. The nation is humiliated enough now by his falsehoods, and would be spared the spectacle of his engaging in a wild goose chase. The Old North State has done nobly, and the slander of the Administration cannot rob her of the credit she deserves.—Richmond (Va.) Enquirer.

The brave moderate and magnanimous inaugural message of Governor Hampton, of South Carolina, Thursday delivered at Columbia, commends itself so fully by its tone to all reasonable men that it would be superfluous to say one word in praise of it. If the Southern Democrats in Congress do not understand that the paramount object of good men at the North to-day is to remit the carpet-bagged commonwealths of the South to the management of their own affairs through such men as the author of this message, they gravely mistake the temper of the times and the needs of the nation. It is to secure this end, not only now but for all time to come, that it is necessary the usurpations of President Grant, and of the conspirators who surround him, should be rebuked and punished by the supreme law. This is an object far above the election of any individual or the triumph of any political party.—New York World.

Nobody seems surprised to hear that Grant wanted to sell his villa at Long Branch as soon as they got to talking about putting up water-works there. Why people should squander their money in establishing water-works, when they could build a still-house at one-half the expense, is, to him, one of those dark and bloody mysteries which eternity can alone reveal. It is hardly to be supposed, though, that he will be quite satisfied with the revelation even then.—Courier-Journal.

We have heard that the plot of bringing the soldiers to Petersburg, for the purpose of defeating Captain Hinton, was conceived by Ramsdell as an act of retaliation and revenge, because reference was made, in some of the speeches of the canvass, to the defalcation of his son. How true this story is, we have not the means of knowing, but one thing cannot be denied, that no partizan bitterness was too extreme for this hypocritical official, after the shame and the guilt of his offspring had been exposed as one of the characteristic crimes of Radical mal-administration.—Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

GLINES' SLATE ROOFING PAINT AND CEMENT

FIRE PROOF. Contains no Tar.
ECONOMICAL. Saves Re-Shingling.
ORNAMENTAL. Preserves Tin or Iron.

STOPS ALL LEAKS.

AGENTS WANTED IN EVERY TOWN.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated looking much better, and lasting much longer than new shingles without the slate, for one third the cost of reshingling. This Paint is practically fire proof as just sparks or flying embers and ordinary heat has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold and will not corrode in the most exposed places. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water tight at a small expense. Best Paint in

EXTREMELY CHEAP!

Two to three gallons will cover 100 square feet of shingle roof, or 400 to 600 square feet of tin, iron, felt, matched-boards, or any smooth surface; although the paint has a heavy body it is easily applied with a brush, and neither cracks in winter, nor runs in summer.

On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and pores, and gives a new substantial roof that may last for years. Curled or warped shingles it brings to their places, and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in Felt or Iron, stops the leaks and although a new dry crack may appear after applying. As nearly all Paints that are black contain tar, be sure you obtain our genuine article which (on shingle roofs) is chocolate color when first applied, changes in about a month to a uniform slate color, and is to all intents and purposes slate.

ON TIN OR IRON ROOFS

our red color is usually preferred, one coat being equal to five of any ordinary Paint. Estimates promptly furnished. For brick walls our brilliant red is the only durable slate Paint ever introduced that will effectually prevent dampness from penetrating and discoloring the plaster.

FIRE-PROOF NEW ROOFS.

Mills, foundries, factories and dwellings a specialty. Materials complete for a new slate roof or rubber Roofing costs but about half the price of reshingling or painting. Houses, barns and buildings of all descriptions is before people to any other roofing in the world for convenience in applying, and combines the ornamental appearance, durability, and fire proof qualities of tin, slate or metal tile cost.

NO TAR OR GRAVEL USED.

Best in the world! Costs all the price of white lead but lasts longer, covers more, looks better, practically lasts 20 years, and is proved far superior to ordinary paints every time. The paint is ready for use in all known shades, can be applied by any one with perfect success on either inside or outside work, floors, walls, fences, &c.; warranted elastic, water-proof and not to peel, chalk off or crack; dries quickly on any surface, forming a firm, hard, elastic, and beautiful painted surface. OUR UNIVERSITY.

A Sketch of the Faculty--Appliances of Instruction--Hall of Agriculture--Y. M. C. A.--Number of Students--Requisites for Admission--Examinations--The Standing of Students.

(Special Correspondence of Raleigh News.)

CHAPEL HILL, Dec. 16, 1876.

To the Editor of the News:

The University has just closed its 3rd session under the new organization. All doubts that once existed about its success are now dispelled. Being established upon a firm foundation it will grow and mature in due time with the aid of public patronage. Indeed, the last session witnessed many evidences of progress Foremost among these were the consisting of a President, well known throughout the State for his intense love of the University, his culture, financial and executive ability, and strong common sense, and of two Professors, the roughly educated and skilled in teaching, according to the best methods, the sciences of natural history, chemistry and mathematics, one being a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute and the other of Michigan University. The Faculty of the University includes nine teachers, of whom eight are North Carolinians; two were Professors and one Tutor under the old regime; two others were students and classmates here in 1868; three received their preparatory instruction of Jas. H. Horner; one of R. H. Graves; three graduated at this University; one at the University of Virginia; two at the Virginia Military Institute; one at Randolph Macon Colleg; one at Michigan University, and one at Cornell University; three are preachers, (Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist;) two are older than fifty; two are middle aged, and five are young men; six are married and three are single. (Item for Commencements.) were also much improved and increased during the session. Smith Hall usually known as the "old chapel," was set apart and arranged as a lecture room and experimental hall for Physics. The partition walls which divided it into four average sized recitation rooms were pulled down, and the entire building is now an immense lecture room large enough to seat two hundred students and contain all the apparatus necessary for the proper illustration of the study. In the chemical department a great deal of apparatus has been purchased; new desks have been made, a new cement floor has replaced the old rotten boards, and arrangements are now making to introduce water and gas pipes and to erect a furnace for the quantitive analysis of substances. Those who have seen laboratories in the North pronounce ours to be as good as the best.

THE APPLIANCES OF INSTRUCTION

An entirely new leaf has been turned over in the teaching of Natural History in the University. Arrangements were made during last session for the sciences embraced in this term. The hall on the third floor of "Old East," north end, formerly used as the room for the University library, was set apart as a room for a Museum of Natural History to contain collections of bird-, animals, fishes, reptiles, insects, flowers, plants, fossils, woods, minerals and other specimens illustrating natural history generally, and especially the natural history of our own State. The recitation room for students of natural history is the one formerly occupied by Dr. Mitchell on the first floor of the south building. In addition to these improvements a was set apart for the reception of agricultural implements and products, to be used for illustrating the study of agriculture. Several donations have already been made, and implements have been received from as far north as Massachusetts. It would be well for each county in the State to place in this hall some representation of its staple products and wealth, so that the means may always be at hand for displaying the resources of the State, and possibly of attracting capital and immigrants.

Another feature of the institution, organized last session is the

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

This association has a large membership; it has a comfortable room on the first floor of the south building, provided with the religious newspapers and periodicals, and in this room, which is open every day, the association meets regularly each week for prayer and consultation. An organization of this kind, managed entirely by students, cannot fail to influence them for good, and to repress many disorders usually attendant on college life.

It is gratifying to know that there was during the session a large increase in the number of students over the roll of last year. During the session there were present of whom fifty were new comers, but not at all freshmen. Many of last year's students were unable to return, and some were dropped out on account of poor scholarship. Considering that the University has no Senior Class, and that the Junior Class is small, the exhibit of 102 students is very promising. All sections of the State are represented here, and names familiar and honored in North Carolina are daily called in our chapel

During the past session, in almost every department,

THE STANDARD OF SCHOLARSHIP

was very materially raised, so that the present Freshman Class has done more work and better work than its predecessor. This is the policy of the University, to grow more thorough and comprehensive in its instruction and more exacting in its demands on the students for study and scholarship. The officers of the University are aware that there are few preparatory schools in the State of the proper character for fitting young men to enter college, and that the expense necessary for attending the few suitable schools is far greater than can be borne by nine-tenths of the people; and therefore they are adopting their policy both to suit the present lack of schools and money in the State, and to promote genuine scholarship. Hence the statement just made, that the University grows more exacting in its demands each year, does not signify that applicants for admission must be better prepared, but that having been admitted and assigned a class adapted to their knowledge and preparation, they must do thorough work, work increasing each year in quality and quantity. The charge has been made against the University that its are so high as virtually to prevent a farmer's son from getting an education within its halls, because he has not been able to incur the expense at a private preparatory school in obtaining the necessary preparation. This charge is entirely false. The University will receive any student that can read, write, and work the ordinary problems of arithmetic. Of course such a student cannot expect to graduate in four years, probably not in five and possibly not in eight years. But he can obtain instruction in any study, Latin, Greek, French, German, Mathematics, &c. In short, the University will furnish preparatory instruction to such students, and upon the student will depend the time required for graduation.

While this liberal policy is pursued the standard of scholarship and attainment is very severe, and is becoming more severe with reference to students who have been admitted. It is the determination of the Faculty that idle students shall not have the degrees of the University. Indeed, they do not intend to allow those who are grossly idle to remain here. As an illustration of this, they have just recommended to the parents of five idle students that they be not returned to the institution. They do not think it right to allow a boy to remain utterly idle at college, even though the boy's parents are willing.

THE EXAMINATIONS

at the close of the session extended over two weeks. In some studies the examination lasted 24 hours, in others 5 hours. Every examination was in writing, and all the members of each class had the same questions to answer and the same time allowed in which to answer. Examinations properly conducted test beyond a doubt the ability of the student. In mathematics, original problems are presented; in the classics, passages, never seen before as well as those already studied, must be translated into English and commented on as to syntax history &c, and original English exercises are to be put into Latin or Greek as the case may be. There can be no dodging or cheating on such occasions, and many who have deceived the teacher during the year are now brought to their proper level.

THE STANDINGS

of the best students, as determined by the work during the session and by the examinations, is, in the order of their names, as follows:

SENIORS (irregular)

W. B. Phillips, of Orange; J. N. Baker, of Edgecombe; F. M. Fremont, of New Hanover.

JUNIORS.

H. T. Watkins, of Granville; J. M. Nicholson, of Halifax; Arthur Arrington, of Franklin.

SOPHOMORES.

Jas. S. Manning of Chatham; Robt. Strange, Jr., of New Hanover.

FRESHMAN.

J. H. Long, of Alamance; T. H. Battle, of Wake; A. L. Cobb, of Alamance; R. G. Briggs, of Halifax; A. L. Philips, of Orange.

There was no student, who received first distinction in every study, but several had a general average higher than first distinction. It is worthy of remark that of the thirteen most distinguished students in college twelve have received a classical education.

The four students in the college having the highest general average, are, in order of names.

Jas. S. Manning, J. H. Long, T. H. Battle and W. B. Phillips

The applications for catalogues indicate a fair increase next session.

CURRENTE CALAMO.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT.

Views of a Prominent Cumberland County Democrat.

[Special Correspondence of Raleigh News.]

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. Dec. 16, 1876.

To the Editor of the News:

As you have invited, through your columns suggestions with reference to a system of county government to be put in operation under the amended Constitution, I will avail myself of your liberality and lay before the public a proposition which may be about as much change as the west will agree to, and which will afford some relief to the east, though it may not be as much as the latter would feel justified in demanding from the Legislature. Let the word district be substituted for township; then let the people of each district elect three magistrates for a term of two years; then let the Legislature appoint three magistrates for each district, and in districts where there are incorporated towns, let an additional number be appointed for each ward. The magistrates thus elected and appointed, shall meet and elect five of their number who shall be known as the county court, and shall administer the county affairs as the County Commissioners now do. The magistrates shall also elect a board of finance for each district, consisting of three free-holders, who shall be substituted for the board of trustees as now provided, and who shall exercise the same duties now performed by the trustees.

Any magistrate's jurisdiction shall extend throughout his county, but any person summoned to appear before a magistrate, outside of his own district, shall be entitled to invite two associate magistrates from his own district to sit upon the case.

Let the other county officers, such as Clerk of the Superior Court, Sheriff and Register of Deeds, be elected by the people and the Coroner appointed by the full board of magistrates. The full bench of magistrates shall meet semi-annually, and shall have an entire supervision of the county affairs and may hear appeals taken from the action of the county court. The county court shall always be opened in form by the Sheriff of the county, who shall be the officer of the court, and who shall always be present, either in person or by deputy, during the sitting of the court, and the court shall always be held in the Court-House, unless by a majority of all the magistrates of the county, some other place may be selected.

I think the Superintendent of Public Instruction should be authorized to a point three tax-payers of each county, who shall be known as the Common School Supervisors and who shall have the entire control of all school matters now appertaining to the school committee of the several townships, and the county court shall have supervision of the conduct of such supervisor, and may hear all appeals as now accorded to the County Commissioners.

I am not wedded to the propositions herein set forth, but hastily throw them out with a view of drawing criticism, so as to get some plan prominently before the people, before the re-assembling of the Legislature. There must be some compromise between the east and the west, so as to give the east relief from the negro incompetency and corrupt rule under which it is now suffering, and at the same time there must not be such a violent revolutionizing of county affairs as to be distasteful to the white people of the west

Some future day, when I have time, I may write again and submit my views in a more coherent and tangible form.

CUMBERLAND.

Grant's Condition.

[N. Y. Sun.]

The following timely remarks are taken from the columns of the Springfield Republican:

"We get evidence of Gen. Grant's violent private talk in so many, and often so direct, ways that we are obliged to believe that he has not been altogether misreported. Some of his authorized speech is so absurd and partisan, not to say passionate, that it lends credence to the more violent and threatening talk that is circulated in private channels and indirectly gets into the papers. Some of this class of sayings are, that he doesn't care a damn for the Supreme Court of South Carolina; that if Congress impeaches him he would transfer that body to Fortress Monroe; that New York city is a hot-bed of rebellion, and that he would bombard the place if they don't look out, and other similar wild threatenings. Of course, there is no explanation of such language from a man in the President's position, save that he is not wholly in his right mind. These things must be said under fret and provocation, and when he is off his balance."

This is perfectly just and correct in every respect save in attributing the President's derangement to fret and provocation. The real cause is liquor. We learn that the men engaged in the conspiracy to make Hayes President by the Returning Boards of Louisiana, South Carolina, and Florida, and by having the President of the Senate pass finally upon the electoral certificates without allowing any voice or part to the House of Representatives, are careful to keep Grant in a state of alcoholic excitement for fear that if he should get sober he would go back upon their plot.

It would be an interesting climax to our Centennial year if the people of the United States should have a President made for them by a dozen scoundrels in these Returning Boards and one drunkard in the White House enforcing the decrees of the scoundrels.

DRUNKEN GRANT.

More of his Ravings--He will Sustain the Man Declared Elected by the President of the Senate--He Calls the Supporters of Tilden a Mob--A Hypocritical Compliment to Southern Leaders, &c.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 18.—A dispatch to the New York Tribune says the President, in a conversation with a friend this afternoon, said that thus far he had received no official information of any unlawful movement in Indiana or elsewhere. He has seen an occasional reference in the newspapers to political agitations in certain sections of the country, and has received information to that effect from other unofficial sources. The administration, he said, is not insensible to the necessity of vigilance, whether these reports are true or false. With reference to the Indiana excitement, the President thinks that should it spread, the loyal sentiment of the majority of the people of that state, and of the whole of the country, will have influence enough to prevent any outbreak. The President said further, that it is gratifying to observe the Conservative spirit shown by many of the Southern leaders. He feels assured that the same disposition will ultimately prevail all over the land and he believes that the men who are now disposed to incite civil war are only those who have everything to gain and nothing to lose in the event of such a national calamity. If an emergency does arise, the President said he should not hesitate to exercise his constitutional authority. Whoever is formally declared by the President of the Senate to have been elected will be recognized by General Grant. To that person will be surrendered the reins of authority. It is not his desire to force upon the people any particular person, but he will see that the person declared to be elected as his successor is placed in possession of the Government. He is not judge of the election. When the question is determined, his duty will be plain. Gen. Grant said that before and since the election he had used his executive power only for the enforcement of the laws and for the preservation of peace, and such an exercise of power conferred upon him he will continue to use until the last moment of his responsibility. He does not think that a Government which has stood the shock of nearly four years battle will now fall before the clamor of a mob. The power of the President to call out the militia of the States, in event of any attempt to resist the inauguration of a President legally declared to be elected, is one which Gen. Grant will not hesitate to use should any occasion arise. He said that it was his recollection that during the riots in New York in 1868, a portion of the National Guard of the Empire State was called out by the direct authority of the President and co-operated with the regular United States troops in suppressing the disturbance.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Congressional--The Telegraphic Imbroglio--The New Jersey Electoral Case--Hadn't served as Commissioner for 25 Years.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—In the Senate, during the morning hour, Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, called up the resolution submitted by him on Friday last, referring the message of the House of Representatives in regard to devising means to count and declare the elecoral vote to a select committee of seven Senators to act with a committee appointed by the House, and it was agreed to by an unanimous vote without discussion. The chair was authorized to appoint the special committee.

Mr. Wright, of Iowa, introduced a bill to establish a court for the trial of contested elections in the offices of President and Vice-President of the United States, and at his request it was ordered that it be printed and lie upon the table. In introducing the bill he said that he had prepared it without consulting with any one, but was not committed to its terms and would be glad to have suggestions in regard to it from other Senators. He believed a law could be passed to settle all of our present difficulties. He relied upon the common sense of the people of this country and believed that the patriotic love of legal methods would prevail.

Mr. Cameron, of Pennsylvania, submitted a joint resolution providing that when the two Houses of Congress adjourn on Friday, 22nd inst., it be to meet on Wednesday, January 3rd, 1877. Ordered to be printed and lie on the table

The Judiciary Committee of the House appointed a sub-committee to report upon the demand for the telegraphic dispatches and to devise some rule of procedure to govern the call from New Orleans and other cases which may follow it. It is understood that in anticipation of calls of this kind all the political correspondence has been compiled and verified in the confidential office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and is ready for production should the demand be pressed to compulsion. It seems likely that both parties will agree to respect the sanctity of telegraphic correspondence.

The Committee on Priviledges and Elections, examined the questioned of the New Jersey electoral case. Twenty-five years ago he had been a commissioner, but had exercised none of the functions of the office since that year.

FOREIGN.

Panama News--American Don't Suit--The Eastern Muddle--Spanish Affairs.

PANAMA, Dec. 18.—The Government reports a great victory over the rebels at Antroguis. 2000 were killed on both sides. The rebels, whose retreat was cut off, are negotiating for a surrender.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Standard's dispatch from Alexandria states on good authority that the Khedive is dissatisfied with his American officers, and has notified them that the contract will not be renewed.

Correspondents say that the Russian General Nicatine succeeds Tchemayeff in Servia.

The Grand Vizier has resolved to reject the important points proposed by Russia, among which is the disarmament of Mahometans and foreign occupation,

MADRID, Dec. 18.—A dispatch says that Gouzales in the Cortes opposed an amendment to the Cuban loan because of its exhorbitant terms.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Electoral Count Question--A Growl From Garfield--A Blow at Bond--The Key to Key's Position.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 18.—HOUSE.—Knott introduced a bill prescribing the method of counting the electoral votes for President and Vice President, which was referred to the select committee on the subject.

Garfield presented a telegram received by him from Huribut, of Illinois, member of the Louisiana select committee, stating that the dispatch from Morrison, its Chairman, to the Speaker, was without the knowledge or consent of the committee. Referred to the judiciary committee.

A resolution, offered by Warren, of Massachusetts, to inquire into the action of Judge Bond, of the United States Circuit Court, in discharging persons held in custody under an order of the Supreme Court of South Carolina, failed for the want of two-thirds, the vote being 138 to 75.

A resolution offered by Bonning, of Ohio, calling for Gen. Sheridans report on the removal of Governor Wells, of Louisiana, in 1867, failed in a like manner.

A resolution was offered by Hunter, of Illinois, instructing the judiciary committee to report an amendment to the Constitution forbidding the payment of war claims to disloyal persons, was adopted, yeas 159, nays 53.

A resolution offered by Frye, of Maine, for a committee of inquiry into the election in the sixth Congressional District of Mississippi and the fourth Alabama, also failed.

SENATE.—The motion to pass the bill reducing the President's salary to $5,000 over the veto was lost, yeas 29, nays 19, not two-thirds.

Mitchell's Oregon resolution was resumed.

Mr. Key, of Tennessee, read a lengthy argument in which he reviewed the Oregon case and said he did not question the motives of the Governor of Oregon. Had he (Key) been in his place he would have held that there was a vacancy on account of the ineligibility of Watts, and would then have filled that vacancy so as to carry out the wishes of a majority of the people. He then referred to the condition of affairs in South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana, and argued that the will of the majority in those States had been reversed by the action of the returning boards. He referred to the argument of the Senator from Ohio, Mr. Sherman to the effect that the decision of the Louisiana returning board was supreme and must be respected by the Senate the same as a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, and said if the decision of that board was supreme in Louisiana the decision of Gov. Grover must be supreme in Oregon. He (Mr. Key) did not admit that these decisions were final, and argued that Congress had the right to go behind them. The acts of these returning boards were not clothed with such sanctity that Congress could not peep behind them. He then referred to the case of Eliza Pinkston, in Louisiana, and denied that any white men were engaged in the outrages upon her. He could assure his friend from Ohio, (Mr. Sherman) that there was not such a large number of savages among the white people of the South as the testimony before the Louisiana returning board would lead him to believe.

The matter was laid aside and the Senate took up the report of the Committee on Rules, which were ordered to be printed.

Adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

Printing of Revenue Stamps--Malignant Morton Interviewed--Big Lobby--The 3,60 Bonds--Old Orton Ordered Off at Once.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—A Congressional inquiry is progressing why the printing of revenue stamps was transferred from the Printing Bureau to Bank Note Companies. A big lobby has been at work.

The Star publishes the following: "Senator Morton was interviewed by a reporter of this paper this afternoon in regard to the political situation. He said he went to Indiana to attend to private business. Occupying the position he does as United States Senator and as chairman of a committee investigating important subjects connected with the Presidential question, he does not deem it proper at this time to express himself fully in regard to the rifle club organizations in the West. He says there is a good deal of bluster and a good many threats among the Indiana Democrats, but he believes it to be solely for the purpose of intimidating the Republicans. He does not regard the movement as a formidable one, nor does he believe anything very serious will grow out of it.

The Solicitor of the Treasury decides that the 3.60 District bonds are not liable to taxation.

Battery G, Second Artillery, has come from Fort Sill.

A personal subpœna was served on President Orton to-day to appear at New Orleans on the 20th with the dispatches.

LOUISIANA.

The Tardy Telegrapher--The Investigating Committee Telegraph a Resolution,

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 18—E. W. Barnes Manager of the Western Union Telegraph, stated before the committee that he had not brought the dispatches as ordered in the subpœna under instructions from his superiors not to deliver them. The committee after consultation adopted the following resolution, which the chairman was instructed to communicate to the House of Representatives by telegraph:

Resolved, That for the efficient prosecution of the enquiry ordered by the House, this committee communicate to the House for its consideration the refusal of E. W. Barnes to produce before the committee telegrams referred to in the subpœna duces tecum served upon him Dec. 13th, 1876, the refusal being in contempt of the House of Representatives.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 18.—There was another unsuccessful ballot for Senator in the Democratic House to-day.

Everything is quiet.

The Congressional and Senatorial committees are working actively but quietly.

There are rumors of compromise between Republicans and Democrats, favorable to the latter.

A Prime Remedy for a Painful Disease

The pangs endured by the rheumatic are attributed by accident ic pathologists to the presence of a certain ab normal acrid element in the blood with the sensitive covering of the muscles and joints. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, being a superb blood regulator, is adequate to expel this impurity, and by removing the cause to allay the pain and feverish symptoms which it produces. That it is a most successful remedy for rheumatism neuralgia and gout, as well as a reliable means of counteracting those diseases is a fact amply evinced by voluntary certificates emanating from those whom it has cured, and attested by medical practitioners of high repute. It is likewise a sovereign curative of dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, urinary troubles and general debility, as well as the most popular and successful antidote to malaria extant.

Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator regulates the bowels, tones the stomach, strengthens the nerves, imparting bright intellect, and joyous, vigorous health.

THE CAROLINA GIN,

Iron Frame, is noted for its superior lightness of draft, cleanness and quickness of picking and length of lint, surpassing all other gins in these particulars, while its price is much less.
